TRIBUTE OF FRANCE TO FALLEN HEROES

Body of Unknown Soldier Laid to Rest Beneath the Arc de Triomphe

IMPRESSIVE AFFAIR

Never in Nation's History Has King or Emperor Been Accorded Such Honors

Paris, Nov. 12.—An unknown soldier, the symbol of France's victory in the war, was laid in its final resting place beneath the Arc de Triomphe yesterday in an apotheosis of glory accompanied by expressions of the gratitude of 2,000,000 of his countrymen and Allies. Never in the history of France has a king or emperor been accorded such honors as those rendered the unknown soldier. The body of Napoleon returning from St. Helena did not stir the French to such a depth of emotion as did this obscure, nameless man.

Not a cheer was heard and not a tear was shed, the five-year war having long since dried up the wells of Paris' tears. The silence was respectfully oppressive. Today broke dull, with a heavy fog hanging like a pall over the silent city.

The most impressive ceremony was at the Pantheon where all the prominent men of political, official and judicial Paris had assembled. Three marshals of France, all the generals prominent in the war and the whole diplomatic corps, with the exception of the German Ambassador, listened to President Millerands speech.

Addressing the unknown soldier's coffin, President Millerand alluded to the American soldiers, saying:

"Unknown soldier, nameless and triumphant representative of the gallant multitudes of pollus; the dead who lie in cold graves in the soil of Flanders, Champagne, Verdun and so many other battlefields, famous or unknown; young heroes who came to us from the other side of the Atlantic the British Isles and distant dominions; from Italy, Belgium and Servia; from all points of the earth to offer your lives for the ideal which France once more is representing, sleep in peace! you have fulfilled your destiny."

President Millerand ended his address with a tribute to Leon Gambetta, the famous French patriot, whom he spoke of as "Gambetta, who in 1870 was the great organizer of the national defense; Gambetta, who after the treaty of Frankfort awaited the revenge of imminent justice; Gambetta, whose enthusiasm, warmth of heart and whole aspiration of soul was on the morrow of disaster a song of hope soaring above the ruins; Gambetta, whom my illustrious predecessor called a part of the religion of France."

After the President's oration the procession took up the march to the Arc de Triomphe. President Millerand walked bareheaded, with Marshals Joffe, Foch and Petain in full regalia following, behind a battered .155 gun of the model of 1915 bearing the body of the unknown poilu.

Valorous, multilated soldiers, painfully drawing their wounded bodies, but with faces radiant with pride, opened the procession. "We captured Gverchy," one soldier minus a leg said. "I would go through it again if necessary."

Old poilus of the Marne battle of 1914, wearing red trousers and kepis received subdued applause, while flowers were thrown from the windows on the car bearing the heart of Gambetta.

The procession reached the Arc de Triomphe shortly after noon. The body of the poilu and the urn containing the heart of Gambetta were placed in the Chapelle Ardente and the procession broke up. The crowds were permitted to file past the coffin and then wended their way homeward after one last look at the soldier draped in the tri-color flag, above which was the inscription, "Thou Shalt Not Pass," to achieve which this, as well as a million and a half other Frenchmen, gave up their lives.

Yesterday afternoon a group of little girls, in the name of the French Government, decorated the graves of American soldiers in Suresnes cemetery, in the presence of Ambassador Wallace, American Legion and French officials and numerous Americans. In his address Ambassador Wallace said:

"I wish to thank these children for coming here today to place flowers on our soldiers' graves. I wish to thank them, not only for myself and in the name of my Government, but I venture to express to them the gratitude of every American mother whose son lies buried in France, and also of every American child whose father fell on a French battlefield. The people of France never forget our dead when mourning their own, and today they give us another proof of that sympathy which unites us, whether in joy or sorrow, whether in adversity or the full tide of success."

Everywhere in the provinces the anniversary of the armistice was celebrated with much solemnity. The garrison troops in many cities marched in review, and wreaths were laid on the graves of those killed in the war or on the monuments erected in their memory.

Paris, accustomed to observing its victory days and national fetes with rejoicing, turned aside this year and dedicated the day to memory and recognition of the sacrifice made by hundreds of thousands of dead who are sleeping in cemeteries along the battle lines.

SACRED MUSIC BY BAND SUNDAY

The Y. M. C. A. has just presented the Citizens' Band with some new sacred music and the boys will have their first rehearsal on the new pieces tonight. The books presented the boys contain some seventy sacred pieces and among them are many of the old familiar ones. Community Social

To be Given Tomorrow Night in Westminster Building

The Westminster Building is the scene of unusual activity today where the Epworth League of the M. E. Church is preparing for the second Y. M. C. A., community social tomorrow night. The young people are determined to make an advance on the high standard set by the Christian Endeavor Society of the Second Presbyterian Church last Saturday night.

It has been requested of the society in direct charge of the party that they always leave at least half of the floor space vacant for the playing of games. And the E. L. intends to have a very unique arrangement whereby they can serve refreshments continually and still leave ample space for the games.

It has also been announced that the program during the evening luncheon hour is to be exceptionally good and very clever talent is to be introduced which will help to make the dinner hour doubly pleasant. The appetzing menu has been published and the rumored large crowd will doubtless materialize. The social will begin at 3 o'clock and continue until ten Saturday evening.

PROHIBIT EXTRACTS FOR BEVERAGES

Grand Jury Says Sale For Such Purposes Illegal

EIGHT TRUE BILLS

Arson Case to be Heard Thursday—Assault Case Nov. 30—Sentence Imposed in Several Cases

The sale of extracts for beverage purposes is tabooed. A grand jury in the corporation court this afternoon declared it illegal and made the following report to the court: "We the grand jury hereby recommend that the sale of all extracts containing alcohol sold as beverages shall be prohibited and anyone dispensing the above as such will be considered as violating the law." Signed "W. H. Sweeney, foreman."

True bills were returned today in the corporation court in eight cases presented to a grand jury W. H. Sweeney was foreman of the jury.

There was a large crowd in attendance and the entire morning was occupied by the jury in hearing the cases. In the case of William Sutton, held for a shooting, the grand jury returned not a true bill.

The jury returned bills to the following cases: Lena Brown, Mary Simms, Catherine Johnson and Katherine Hardin, non-residents, for grand larceny.

Preston Nash, arson; Frank Bettis, housebreaking.

The court fixed the case of Joseph Caeser for trial November 30. He is charged with attacking a young white woman who was employed in his store in the capacity of a clerk.

The case of Nash who it is alleged set fire to the big storeroom of the plant of the Old Dominion Glass Co., was set for trial on next Thursday and the court assigned Attorneys Carl Budwesky, Edmund Hill, Jr., and Thomas M. Watson to defend the prisoner.

The trial of Katherine Hardin also was fixed for next Thursday.

In the case of Mary Simms, indicted for grand larceny, accused entered a plea of guilty and in one case was sentenced to two years in the penitnetiary and in another case sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

A plea of guilty to grand larceny was entered by Lena Brown and she was sentenced to one year in one case and six months in another case. Catherine Johnson entered a plea of grand larceny and was given six months.

WILSON MAY BE OFFERED HIGH PLACE IN LEAGUE

Washington, Nov. 12.—Officials high in the executive council of the league of nations are seriously considering offering President Wilson an eminent post, possibly that of titular head of the organization, upon his retirement from office, according to information that reached Washington from London yesterday.

When asked about this report today, Secretary of State Colby said he knew nothing about it and that anyway it is a matter entirely for the White House. Officials at the White House stated no word of the movement has as yet reached the President.

The league as now organized, it was pointed out here today, is without an official head, the nearest approach to such an officer being Sir Eric Drummond, the secretary, who has offices in London.

AMATEURS PUT ON "SCRAP OF PAPER"

High School Juniors Present Splendid Performance

JACK POHL STARS

Affair Under Direction of Miss Corrine Reardon Will be Repeated Tonight and Tomorrow Night

Alexandria High School Juniors covered themselves with glory last night in their initial performance of the rather difficult French play, "A Scrap of Paper."

It was an appreciative audience that assembled in the A. H. S. auditorium to witness the "first night," many of them no doubt directly interested in the play from the standpoint of "friends or relatives." But they were well rewarded for the jaunt out there in the mist and mud—as the aforesaid A. H. S. is well out to begin with and quite surrounded by poor crossings and muddy sidewalks besides.

The play was under the direct management of Miss Corrine Reardon, director of speech and dramatic art at the high school, and was coached by Mrs. G. W. Rosser, of Washington, and was a distinct credit to both. The comedy was translated from the French and had a distinct French atmosphere throughout.

The lead and outstanding star was Jack Pohl, who played the part of an attractive bachelor and played it well. His lines were difficult and he had more than his share of them, but he used his memory to good advantage and played his part exceptionally well, even being responsible at times for the smoothness of the other parts.

Opposite Jack was Nancy Wattles playing only a little less difficult part as a maiden lady cousin of the other lead, Virginia Steele. Miss Wattles has splendid stage presence, enunciates perfectly and assisted in keeping the entire cast at ease. Miss Steele had an exceptionally difficult part in trying to portray the nervous French woman who had married the other man and was trying to keep her husband from discovering that she had really loved the original.

Perhaps the outstanding "teress" of the east was Margaret Paff, who appeared to be entirely at home in her new surroundings back of the footlights. She was always at ease, easily remembered her lines and cues, and spoke perfectly each word of her part. Her part was rather difficult as it was distinctly comedy and necessitated unusual poise at all times.

But it is always difficult to differentiate when writing a story of an amateur play. The parts were all different, of course and the characters chosen for the different interpretations, and they were all well chosen and all played their parts well. Clinton Parker was good as a French nobleman, Richard Wright unusually good as a "landed proprietor and naturalist."

Stanley Dreifus, Keith Wade and Grafton Cockey carried their minor parts well and occasional displays of real talent were evident when needed. Marian Disnelt was distinctly pretty when she appeared to open the play in the riding habit that became her most charmingly. Her changes of costume only increased the first impression of her good looks.

Mary Asbury and Annie Knight, servants, both showed that they could easily have taken more difficult parts if necessary. In fact the talent displayed throughout the play was evidence of the truthfulness of the oft repeated statement that Alexandria has an abundance of real ability.

Between acts a bunch of pretty girls sung lively songs of a popular nature to the accompaniment of ukuleles and a mandolin, while Frances Barbhouse had little difficulty in winning the audience with her charming piano introduction to the evenings entertainment. The play is to be repeated tonight and Saturday evening and no doubt will show to capacity houses.

GIRL SMUGGLED ON SHIP BY CREW HELD AT NORFOLK

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 12.—Jeanne Laure, an 18 year old French girl, smuggled aboard the S. S. Nordmark at Brest, France, by members of the crew, was taken from the ship here and is held at the detention room at police headquarters to be deported by the immigration authorities. The members of the crew responsible for smuggling her aboard will be taken to Brest and tried.

The girl was taken aboard the ship and concealed in a lower cabin shortly after the Nordmark cleared. Food was carried her by members of the crew, and there she remained until several days ou tat sea. When discovered she was taken in custody by the captain and confined in a cabin for the remainder of the trip.

The Nordmard cleared from Brest, October 23, and arrived here yesterday.

The French consul was notified of the girl's presence aboard the ship.

Zarenko said he did not believe any members of his union had anything to do with the explosion.

GIRL STUDENT ARRESTED FOR BIRTH CONTROL LECTURE

The arrest was made on complaint of the welfare board. After a house to house canvass for members, Miss Miller is alleged to have organized a club of six members, one of whom reported the case to the welfare board.

Night Raids in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—In the first of a projected series of city-wide night raids, Federal prohibition authorities last night and early this morning descended on five saloons and one still. They captured nearly $25,000 worth of liquor.

The still belonged to Joseph Fargo, Who, with four employees, was arrested. There were four stills, with a total capacity of 120 gallons a day 260 gallons of the finished product, large quantities of mash and four oil stoves. It was believed by the raiders to be the fountain head of much of Chicago's moonshine.

In the saloon of Joe Rush, Federal officers secured five cases of beer, a gallon of moonshine and evidence of sales.

At other saloons empty whisky bottles and secret compartments containing moonshine were found. One raid was made where 40 customers were assembled.

"We should worry," one said. "Judge Landis will soon be in the base ball business and we won't have to worry about him."

Freight Train Foils Robbers

COAL OUTPUT EXCEEDS NEEDS

The 10,000 bituminous mines now in operation are able to produce 100,000,000 more coal per year than the United States is able either to use or export and there is no reason to pay a high price for coal, according to J. D. A. Morrow, vice president of the National Coal Association, who pleaded against Federal control of the mines suggested by Senator Calder in an address yesterday.

So great is the untouched coal land acreage along the railroads, said Morrow, that 10,000 additional mines could be opened. The only trouble now, he adds, lies in transportation.

Dwelling upon high speculative prices that existed in some of the soft coal fields during the shortage, Morrow said:

"The unfortunate feature was that it afforded an unusual opportunity for speculators who never had anything to do with the coal industry before to inject themselves into the market and accentuate an already acute situation. The National Coal Association, representing the responsible bituminous coal producers of the United States, has had no sympathy at any time with these speculative abuses.

"It is only in the past few months that we have had enough cars to transport coal. In the meantime the production has arisen to 12,000,000 tons a week, and prices have begun to decline so that we are now much below the price levels prevailing six weeks ago.

"If the priority orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission are continued until December 1, I have no doubt that production will be sufficient during the remainder of the winter, together with the reserves that will have then been accumulated, to carry the country through to next spring without any difficulty. Therefore, there is no reason for anyone to pay an unreasonable prices for soft coal.

GREENWICH MUST REFORM

Police Head Blames "Jaded Appetites" for "Village's" Moral Tone

New York, Nov. 12.—Complete regeneration of Greenwich Village the Latin quarter of New York, until it will become unattractive to sightseers and "morbid-minded persons with a jaded appetite for sensation," was predicted in the annual report of Police Commissioner Enright to Mayor Hylan, made public today. The report enumerated great improvement in the moral tone of that section within the past two years and said it would soon be "restored to its previous status of a respectable residential and business neighborhood."

The commission said "a certain foolish and degenerate appetite for the unusual or sensational, mostly recruited from outside of New York promoted by sightseeing car grafters and other parasites, kept questionable resorts alive and proved that Barnum was right."

Mr. Enright also criticized the newspapers for publishing "exaggerated reports of crime waves."

GOVERNOR COX BEGINS VACATION IN SOUTH

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 12.—Gov. Cox, of Ohio, was tendered an informal reception on his arrival here yesterday with Mrs. Cox en route to Tuskegee for a week's hunting trip as relaxation from his campaign. He was also accompanied by former Senator Taggart, of Indiana, and was met there by Senator Harrison of Mississippi, who will accompany the Governor on his hunting trip.

Owing to the brief stay here, no attempt at formal welcome to the Governor was made, and he had no comment to make on political matters. Senator Harrison and Taggart however, issued a statement declaring that talk of reorganization of the Democratic party was ill-timed.

"The party has already elected its leader the next four years," the statement said. "That leader is James M. Cox. It is presumption on the part of anybody to say that the Democrats who knifed the party should try to reorganize it."

LEAGUE IS IMPOTENT WITHOUT THE U. S.

Membership Vital to its Very Existence Argentine Minister Asserts

GENEVA PROBLEMS

Pueyrredon Will Strive to Solve It When Assembly Delegates Gather—Austria Seeks Membership

Paris, Nov. 12.—One of the most important problems to come before the assembly of the League of Nations at its coming meeting in Geneva will be that of finding some way of bringing the United States into the League, in the opinion of Honorio Pueyrredon, Argentine Minister of Foreign Affairs, as expressed here yesterday.

Pueyrredon, who is a delegate to the assembly, will leave for Geneva Friday night and will appear before the assembled delegates as soon as he can find an opportunity, he said, to point out to them that the participation of America in the League is fundamental to the very existence of that organization.

"I think it a great pity that the United States is not already an active participant in the League," he said. "While I do not say that the League should be abandoned because America has not joined it, I firmly believe that her entrance is vital if the League is to be a virile, functioning body for the prevention of wars.

The country which has always stood for and fought for right and justice, and which gave birth to the wonderful League idea, must become a party to the almost divine mission which a real world League has before it. My trip to France and to the battlefields has simply made my conviction firmer that there must be a League of Nations. I am afraid that war has not been ended, but, on the contrary, has just begun, and unless a strong League is brought into existence the world will again see a struggle, more frightful even than the one just finished.

"I am a firm believer in the League, if it is to be one of action, not of words, and in this I express the views of my countrymen.

"Just what can be done to bring America into the League remains to be seen, but the problem must be studied and a solution found. I may suggest some plan, or just put an idea into the heads of the delegates. I am going before the assembly with this idea. I wish to say that no country has suggested the step. I am merely doing what I regard as my duty.

Geneva, Nov. 12.—Austria, after sounding the Entente Powers with regard to her acceptability, has asked admission to the League of Nations.

ARMY EDUCATIONAL FILM

The families and friends of the 190,000 enlisted men of the Army as well as the societies and organizations which are engaged in Americanization and educational work will be interested in a two reel motion picture film, which has just been prepared by the War Department, showing the work at the Recruit Educational Center at Camp Upton, New York.

This film as available will be distributed for exhibition purposes to recruiting officers throughout the country.

The Americanization work which is being performed by the army at its recruit educational centers is one of the greatest advances that has recently been made and this picture shows the recruit at work and play. The scenes show the classes in the various grades the teaching of English and elementary mathematics —together with a number of views of the supervised recreational activities of the new soldier.

When it is realized that one out of every four men drafted into the army during the world war was unable to intelligently read the daily newspaper, the value to the country of the army's educational work can be better appreciated.

That over 1,000,000 men, citizens of our country, which prides itself upon its educational advantages, could be classified as illiterate is astounding, but had the entire manpower of the nation been called the number so classified would have increased in all probability in proportion.

The army through its schools today, is bringing education, elementary or advanced to 190,000 men and the films to be exhibited show the elementary school work that is being done at the Recruit Educational centers where non-English speaking and illiterate recruits are given their preliminary education.

A GOOD NEWSPAPER RULE

The election of Senator Harding to the Presidency of the United States ought to help improve his ideas as a newspaper publisher on some of his contemporaries here and elsewhere who are going as they were throughout the campaign disposed to accept his judgment on public affairs.

One of the admonitions given by Mr. Harding to his employees in his newspaper office, long before he was a candidate for President, was that in reporting the news they should not pave their way to bring into public the innocent relatives of unfortunates whose names appear in the news as transgressors of the law. This is a very good rule It is regrettable, that it is not the rule in more newspaper offices than in the one controlled by President-elect Harding.

Why should the news of a suicide be embellished by the names and addresses of all of his relatives? Why should the unfortunate wife or mother or sister of an embezzler or murderer be interviewed regarding the crime? Why should any of the relatives of any of the unfortunates be paraded in the public print? The innocent relatives of suicides, murderers, embezzlers and law violators of other classes suffer enough when one of their kin goes wrong.

If the election of Senator Harding to the Presidency has the effect of influencing more newspapers to adopt the rule referred to, it will at least have accomplished some good.

BERGDOLL THE SLACKER

News of Bergdoll, the notorious slacker, has again appeared in the newspapers. The latest is that he is in Germany, to which country he escaped after his sensational getaway from this city. Sooner or later Bergdoll will be captured. The money power of his family is not enough to overcome the power of the United States, and the army officials of this country will get him, whether he be in Germany, Africa or any other part of the earth. It may take a little time, but Bergdoll will have to come back and serve his sentence, including the additional one which he will get after he is captured.

BERLIN IDLE SEIZE WORKS

1,600 Men Take Part in First Violence of Labor Crisis

Berlin, Nov. 12.—The first violence in Berlin's labor crisis occurred at noon yesterday when 2,600 unemployed men, many of whom were armed, stormed the Lion Metal Works, drove the owners and engineers away and banked the fires under the furnaces. At 6 o'clock this evening they were still in possession of the plant, while police were forming outside the works planning an attack.

It is thought this may be the beginning of similar seizures of factories in Germany, as the recent Italian industrial coups.

CHAMP CLARK EXPECTED TO RUN FOR SENATE

Former Speaker of House Reported As Preparing to Oppose Reed in 1922

Washington, Nov. 12.—Champ Clark is not worrying over his defeat, if reports to Washington accurately describe his state of mind. His friends think he will spend the next two years on the lecture platform—with financial benefit, too—and make the race in Missouri two years hence to succeed Senator James A. Reed, whose term expires then. He was urged by Missouri Democrats to make the Senatorial contest last spring, but turned the offer down.

Mr. Clark has been a lecturer off and on for years. In his long public career he has stored up plenty of lecturing material for a rainy day.

Among his lectures are one on Daniel Webster and one on Aaron Burr. The lecture most favored is said to be "Picturesque Public Men."

HE GOT AN ARMFUL

Santa Ana, Calif., Nov. 12.—A bride weighing 725 pounds was brought home yesterday by John H. Hamilton, who weighs 155.

Mrs. LAURA RARICK, of Peoria, Ill., who says she believes she is the happiest woman on earth since Tanlac so completely restored her health. Regains 30 pounds which she lost during a period of ill health which lasted eleven long years.

"I believe I am the happiest woman in the world, and it is all because of what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. Laura Rarick, 403 Meidroth St., Peoria, Ill., a well-known and highly respected resident of that city.

"I never dreamed that I would ever find anything that would do for me what Tanlac has done," she said, "I was in a wretched state of health and was down in bed so long that I lost fifty pounds in weight, but I have gained back every pound I lost and I now feel as well as I ever did in my life. The indigestion and other troubles that made life a burden for eleven years have entirely disappeared and I am like a new woman.

"My stomach was so disordered that even liquid foods and plain water caused me to have dreadful cramping spells that lasted for hours. My kidneys were disordered and I had pains across my back almost constantly. I had severe headaches nearly every day and became so dizzy I could hardly stand. I was so nervous it was impossible for me to get a good night's sleep. I tried every conceivable medicine and was treated by specialists, but nothing helped me, and finally I was told I would never be well again.

"But Tanlac has made me a perfectly well woman in every way. I can now eat and sleep like other people and I haven't a pain about me.

"I am glad to give this statement, for I want to do all I can to let the world know about this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr., and Gibson's Drug Store.

G. O. P. NATIONAL CAMPAIGN COST $3,416,000

French Lick, Ind., Nov. 12.—The Republican national campaign cost $3,416,000, according to figures given out here last night by Fred W. Uphara, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, who is here for a brief rest. He stated that the deficit amounted to $1,350,000.

PITTSBURGH VETERANS REFUSE TO MARCH

Pittsburgh, Nov. 12.—Protesting against the presence of Mayor E. V. Babcock in the reviewing stand, because the city recently issued a permit for what they termed a "pro-German tag day," scores of overseas veterans who took part in the Armistice Day parade here refused to march past the stand. After vainly trying to make a speech which was drowned by the cries of spectators and marchers, Mayor Babcock left the stand and the parade proceded.

When the line of automobiles carrying 1,000 or more men who had been wounded reached the reviewing stand on which stood Mayor Babcock the parade stopped. Men climbed out of the machines and the assembled crowd cheered them. They made a detour of a block or two around the stand, and then took up the line of march as though nothing had happened.

The word was carried back along the line of marchers and post after post of the American Legion followed the example of the wounded as they reached the stand.

OLD HERBAL REMEDY USED FOR 40 YEARS IN RELIEVING DIABETES

The most satisfactory results have been obtained in combating Diabetes by observing certain dietary rules and the judicious use of Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy, an herbal preparation used with marked success for more than forty years.

Following is a letter from a grateful user:

"This letter is the best proof that I am still alive. Your medicine is a miracle to me. My weight was reduced from 157 to 11 4pounds when I left the hospital. I left there Aug. 6th, in despair. Hundreds of people that knew me said I would never live to return to my studio. After leaving the hospital I saw your "Ad" in the paper. I began its use and at once commenced to improve, and now everybody is saying to me that I look better than ever before. I tip the scales at 132 pounds and I am back working again to the astonishment of all. I feel splendid and people say I am looking better every day. I must tell you that every word I have written is true, and I can prove it by hundreds that knew of my condition. Jules Friquet, 511 West First Street, Los Angeles, Cal."

Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy is made from herbs and other beneficial ingredients and has been on the mark et 40 years, a true indication of its value. Get a bottle today.

IRISH HOME RULE BILL.

Measure Passed After Motion for Rejection is Defeated by Vote of 183 to 52.

London, Nov. 12.—The Irish Home Rule bill passed the House of Commons on its third reading last night, after a motion for rejection of the measure, proposed by William C. Adamson, the opposition leader, had been defeated by 183 to 52.

The measure passed without any noteworthy incident in a rather tame debate. The Liberal and Labor members, who have boycotted it through most of its stage as a sign of their conviction of its hopelessness as a settlement of the Irish problem, were again absent today. The final stage was reached in a small and rather listless gathering of members of the House.

The fundamental principles laid down in the Irish Home Rule bill are:

First—that the people of the six Ulster counties shall not be brought administratively under an outside parliament in Ireland.

Second—That there shall not be any weakening of the reservations which have been made by the Government for the purpose of safeguarding the vital interests of the United Kingdom.

Under the bill two Legislatures with upper and lower houses would be set up, one for the north of Ireland and the other for the south.

If less than half the members of either Legislature are validly elected or fail to swear allegiance to the King, the King may dissolve the parliament and place the Government in the hands of a committee appointed by the lord lieutenant.

A "council for Ireland," composed of 40 members, half of whom would be selected by each Parliament, also is provided for in the bill. The powers of the council would be limited to those granted it by the two Legislatures.

The two Legislatures would have full control of education, local government, the land policy, transportation, old age pensions, insurance and other matters. A court of appeals for the whole of Ireland, presided over by the Lord Chancellor, is provided for. Neither body may establish any particular religious creed or penalize any one for belonging to or not belonging to any religious denomination.

Control of the royal Irish constabulary and the metropolitan police of Dublin would be transferred by the imperial Parliament to the Irish Parliament three years after the act comes into operation.

Powers reserved to the imperial Parliament embrace the crown, peace and war, foreign affairs, army and navy, coinage, defense, treason, trade outside of Ireland, postoffice, navigation, including merchant shipping, wireless and cables and collection of income and excess profit taxes.

Both North and South Ireland would contribute for two years to the support of the empire.

Keep Your Blood Pure
Nature Will Do the Rest

Did you know that ninety per cent of all human ailments depend upon the condition of your blood?

Nature gives her warnings in various unmistakable ways, so that when the appetite fails, and you become weak and listless and a general run-down condition seems to take possession of the whole body, it is an unfailing sign that impurities will steadily accumulate until your general health will be seriously affected. You should recognize the importance, therefore, of very promptly cleansing out the system, and keeping the blood supply pure and robust.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drugstore to day, and note how promptly it builds up the appetite and gives new strength and vitality. Write for free literature and medical advice to Chief Medical Adviser, 153 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

FIND MISSING TEACHER

Spent Four Days Foodless in Barn Near Home

Burlington, N. J., Nov. 12.—Missing since last Saturday from her home in this city and sought far and wide by Boy Scouts and other volunteer searchers, Miss Edith B. Cook, the school teacher, was found last night in an old barn not more than four blocks from the home of her brother-in-law, J. P. Perinchief. Though she had been without food and must have suffered from the cold, Miss Cook appeared little the worse for her experience. She was very much dazed, however, and explained that she had sprained an ankle and had stopped in the barn for a few hours' rest.

The young woman was discovered by her brother, William Cook and William Sherman, who had been pursuing the quest for her ever since her disappearance. Cook carried an electric flashlight and entering the old barn came upon a raincoat which he recognized as his sister's. Further search revealed the unfortunate teacher hiding in the mow. She recognized her brother immediately and said she was ready to go home with him. Miss Cook had never recovered from a severe attack of influenza during the terrible epidemic last year.

Fifteen Hurt in Ship Gas Blow-up.

Galveston, Texas, Nov. 12.—Fifteen men were injured, eight seriously, when eighty gallons of gasoline, which had drained from a pet cock into the bilge of the Southern Pacific Steamship Company's launch Ouida, blew up today.

CLAIMS FARMER WON'T BE GOAT MUCH LONGER

Boston, Nov. 12.—The day of the farmer as "the goat," is at an end, declared H. J. Lowell, of Fredonia, N. Y., in his report as national master of the grange, yesterday.

"The farmer feels," he said, "that he should receive the same pay for the same hours of work that other workers receive. This is the last call. If no attention is paid to it and if the government continues to use its great power to import raw materials free of duty to keep down costs, then the granges will be forced to join other bodies in an effort to organize a nationwide selling organization to fix prices for food."

MCADOO SEES PRESIDENT, CONFERS WITH DEMOCRATS

William G. McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, was in Washington yesterday, called on Secretary Daniels, had lunch at the White House and conferred with a number of Democratic leaders now attending conferences on the proposed reorganization of the Democratic party.

It was again rumored that McAdoo will be brought forward as a likely candidate for the Presidential nomination in opposition to Governor Cox in 1924.

DEATH THREAT SENT TO TO AMERICAN LEGION

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 12.—A warning not to "try to get away with" a parade of former service men arranged for today in connection with an armistice day celebration was found last night under the door of American Legion headquarters here. The warning, which was unsigned and which was turned over to the Department of Justice, read: "Don't try to get away with that parade. We spoiled one. We will send the war lovers to hell."

GIVES LIFE TO SAVE BABY SISTER FROM FIRE

Marshall, Texas, Nov 12.—Imprisoned by flames, 4 year old Frederic Murphy yesterday sought vainly to save the life of his infant sister, Mary Virginia, 17 months old, and himself perished in the attempt.

The child's heroism was disclosed with the discovery of the two bodies, badly burned, in a corner under the bed in a flame destroyed room of the Murphy home yesterday, the little boy hugging his sister closely in his arms.

POINTERS FOR PONZI DUPES

Federal Court Mails Instructions to Creditors as to Claims

Boston, Nov. 12.—Another chapter in the story of the deflation of the Ponzi "get-rich-quick" bubble was written yesterday, when Attorney General J. Weston Allen mailed to the 13,107 investers who had presented their unpaid notes at his office, legal forms upon which their claims against Charles Ponzi's Securities Exchange Company may be filed in the United States District Court. Similar forms were also mailed to the 819 note-holders who held gift-adorned certificates of the Old Colony Foreign Exchange Co. which rivaled Ponzi's promises of wealth.

In a letter enclosed with the form, the Attorney General informed the note-holders that in order to recover any amount to which they may be entitled as creditors in bankruptcy, it would be necessary for them to file proof of their claim in the United States District Court. The letter also named a long list of attorneys who have agreed to act as counsel for note-holders who are unable to employ counsel of their own.

The total liabilities on the unpaid notes of Ponzi presented to the Attorney General's office to date is $5,338,675, while those of the Old Colony Foreign Exchange Company amount to $367,643.

EX-KAISER ENJOYS LIFE

Doorn, Holland, Nov. 12.—Two years ago last night William Hohenzollern arrived at the Dutch frontier, a refugee Emperor. Yesterday he was leading in this little village the life of a Dutch country gentleman, doing just about as he pleases and going almost where he desires, about the countryside, so long as he stays within the territorial limits prescribed by the Dutch Government.

The Associated Press correspondent has been told by those in close touch with the former Emperor that during the past few months William has found much contentment in the life on his new estate here. He is said to feel certain that no further demands for his surrender will be made upon the Holland Government

EPISCOPAL SCHOOL NOT TO BE OPENED AT ONCE

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 12.—Sale of the "Chatham" property will prevent the opening here of the Episcopal Boys' School as had been previously announced. The committee's recommendation that Fredericksburg be selected as the site for this school was contingent upon obtaining the Chatham property, which is now not available. Accordingly, at the meeting of the board of trustees of the church schools of the Episcopal Church, the decision was rendered in favor of placing the girls' school at Tappahannock, and an agricultural school for boys at Urbanna, and it being of the distinctly agricultural type, will leave the situation open for Fredericksburg at some future date to be considered for a school of the type which was in the minds of the committee to place here.

The committee on location of church schools has recommended that a committee be appointed to investigate further the advisability of locating a school in this city.

U. S. MARINES IN HAITI BRING ORDER OUT OF CHAOS

Washington, Nov. 12.—Conditions in Haiti are much improved, according to a report by Rear Admiral Knapp, who is making an investigation for the State Department. General satisfaction throughout the island had been noted by the officer, it was stated today, with the administrative work of American marines.

Admiral Knapp visited several towns in the neighborhood of bandit operations a year ago and found peace and quiet prevailing, the people contented and crops coming in, the statement said.

UNEMPLOMENT SERIOUS PROBLEM IN FRANCE

Paris, Nov. 12.—Despite the statements of French industrial magnates that the slump in production was caused by lack of labor, recent figures reveal that unemployment is becoming a serious problem. More than 125,000 workers are out of work as a result, it is alleged, of factories closing down rather than consent to a reduction in their prices.

The industries concerned are chiefly leather, skins and clothing. Immense stocks of these goods are being withheld from the market, it is charged, in order not to lower the prices.

HARDING TO CALL CONGRESS He Is Expected to Summon Extra Session March 14.

Washington, Nov. 12.—From sources close to President-elect Harding it was learned last night that he intends to call the extra session of Congress to convene Monday, March 14.

The new Congress, in accordance with the prediction of Republican leaders here, will be in almost continuous session for the next two years. It will first take up revision of taxation legislation and readjustment of the tariff. What form consideration of the peace treaty will take has not been fully established, but this, too, will be among the first propositions tackled by the Senate of the Sixty-seventh Congress.

National Attraction

You bet it's rube stuff! The scheming city guy who gets his claws onto the farm—the blue-eyed country girl who elopes with him to the city—the rube brother who hikes out after her—and all the quaint old folks of PEACEFUL VALLEY—they're all in it! But isn't that the sort of a story in which you like CHARLIE RAY best, with the hick-humor, the sob and hefty wallop? Isn't it?

Hosiah Howe was just a great big country hick—yet a hick with a kick when he had to square his own little sister with the world!
